

SUNDAY
MARCH 22

"Pablo Casals" in Concert

Picture by: Bob Plotkin

The concert will be a Benefit for Music for Relief, a not-for-profit project by Linkin Park, bringing the music community together to create awareness and raise funds for those in need.

Tickets are $15 and are available at the New Castle Recreation Department and the Clinton Street Senior Center in Pleasantville.

All checks must be made out to: Senior Activity Group of New Castle

$15 TICKET | 3:00PM

On Sunday, March 22nd, cellist Michael Meade will enact the life and times of Pablo Casals, the leading cellist of the 20th century. Playing the part of Casals, and joined by Pleasantville soprano Sonya McGaffey and other musicians, Meade will bring you the story of a remarkable life enhanced by moving performances of Casals' favorite music.

New Castle Community Center
10 Senter Street
Chappaqua, NY 10514